Honours List 2003-2004

Aims

An Honours List has been compiled with the intent of drawing attention to the many students who have distinguished themselves in academic performance and exceptional conduct attainment as well as in international and region-wide competitions in physical education, art & design, academic disciplines and various categories of extra-curricular activities. The school also wishes to give formal recognition to those students who have made notable contributions in service to the school through the school year. For any student to excel takes a tremendous amount of effort. Talent must be combined with hard work, sacrifice and a high degree of commitment. What does it mean to excel? To excel means to be superior in quality, to be greater in quantity, and to possess the ability to outdo oneself on each and every occasion. This is a quality that the school aspires to foster in every student.

Selection of Students to be Included in the Honours List

A Selection Board comprising the Principal, Vice Principals, A&D Panel Coordinator and PE Panel Coordinator has been formed to elect students to be included in the Honours List.
